The dress code

This is a black tie event, the best possible excuse to dress up and celebrate Christmas with glamour.

Having said that, the 'black tie' dress code is not compulsory. We're relaxed about it. There are no bouncers on the door glowering at you for wearing the wrong type of trousers.

For men, if you fancy going full 'black tie', the look consists of a tuxedo, dress shirt, black bow tie and shiny patent leather shoes. However, if that isn't your style, don't worry. A normal suit will be fine.

For women, this is a rare and special opportunity to wear a formal gown — although, again, you don't have to. If a full-length, floor-swishing number isn't your thing, opt for the refined sophistication of a knee-length cocktail dress.

Sample Menu
